

TRANSFER PROCESSING

A student transferring from another school will be assessed at the current rate per semester or per credit hour charge for individual courses.

A student who has never attended the International College of Broadcasting must pay a registration fee and tuition deposit of $195.00

TRANSFER CREDITS PROCESS

The International College of Broadcasting does not guarantee the transferability of credits either to or from other institutions. Credit transfer is the right of the receiving institution. An articulation fee of $100.00 will be charged for each class for which credit is granted. A maximum of 25% of a student's program can be accepted for transfer/test-out credit.

Students using Veterans Affairs Educational Benefits, all prior educational course transcripts must be requested from prior education institutions and be evaluated. The articulation fee is not applied to students who are using Veterans Affairs Education Benefits who transfer in credits and/or test-out of classes.

COURSE TEST-OUT

ACCUPLACER course test-out scores are as follows:

English Assessment:

College English: WritePlacer score great than or equal to 7

Math Assessment:

College Algebra: Elementary Algebra score greater than or equal to 100

An articulation fee of $100.00 and a test out fee of $100 (total of $200) will be charged for each class for which credit is granted. A maximum of 25% of a student's program can be accepted for transfer/test-out credit.

*For more information about ACCUPLACER testing, please visit
<https://accuplacer.collegeboard.org/>*

The ACCUPLACER test provides information about the students' skills in reading, writing, and math to help college administrators place them in courses that match their skills.

NOTE: The articulation fee is not applied for students using Veterans Affairs Educational Benefits, who transfer in credits and/or test out of classes.

CREDIT FOR PREVIOUS TRAINING

Students that have not attended International College of Broadcasting previously, must present a transcript of records to be evaluated and considered for awarding of credit. The grade recorded on submitted transcripts must be a C (2.0) or above. Transfer credits are award on a one-to-one basis per semester. Credit for course hours not earned within the past five years may be granted at the discretion of the Director of Education.

Credit for previous training at the International College of Broadcasting will be awarded for successfully completed semesters. Tuition charges will be assessed for the remaining weeks of training left to complete the Diploma or Degree Programs. Payment of a student registration fee is required if the last date of attendance was not within the last twelve (12) months. The tuition will be pro-rated. Diploma Program graduates must complete the current requirements for the completion of the Associate Degree Program.

Students transferring in educational credits will receive a transfer credit break in tuition at the end of their program.

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

The International College of Broadcasting does not have articulation agreements with any other institutions.
